Location Overview

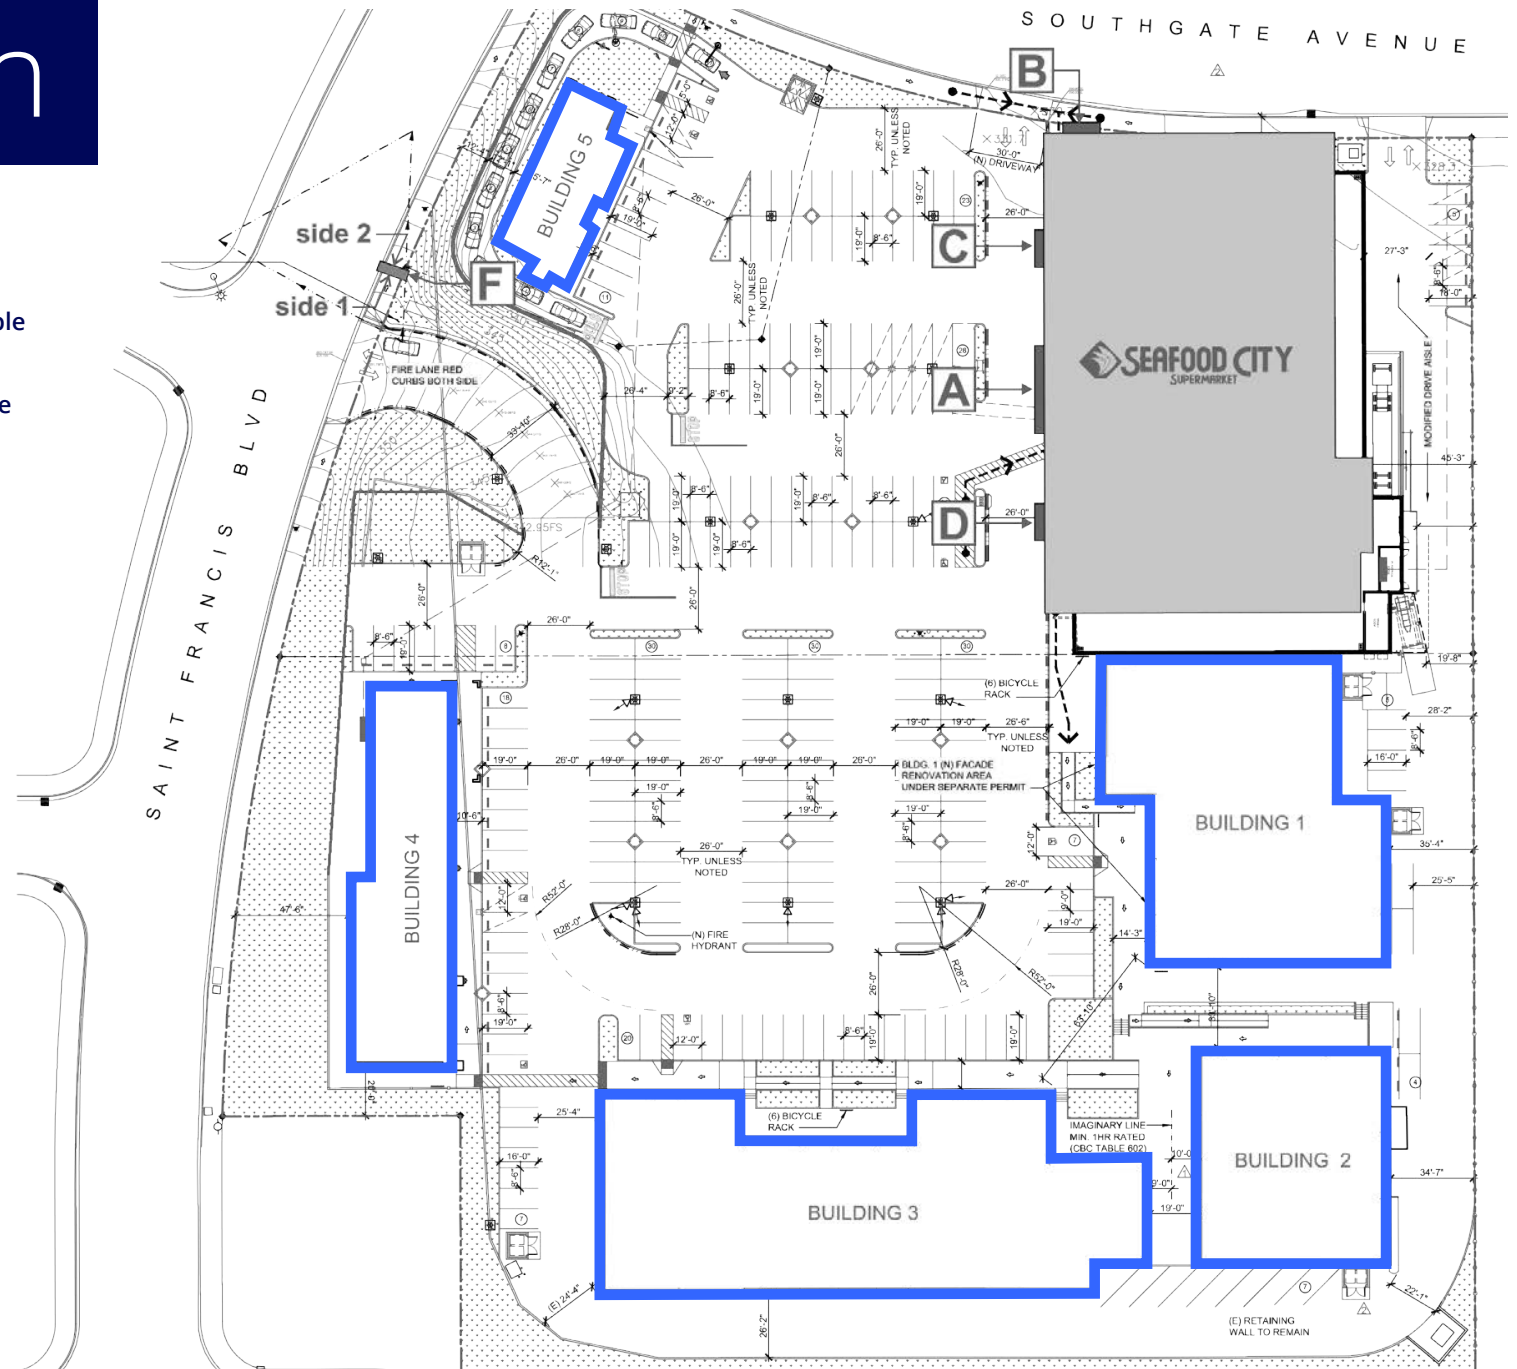

The Daly City neighborhood near the intersection of I-280, Highway 1, and Skyline Boulevard is a scenic, suburban area with a mix of residential communities, shopping centers, and outdoor attractions. Westborough and the surrounding St. Francis Square Shopping Center serve as key retail hubs, featuring popular spots like Philz Coffee and Jollibee, while Serramonte Center offers major retailers such as Target, Dick's Sporting Goods, and Uniqlo. The area is also known for its proximity to outdoor spaces, including the scenic Sweeney Ridge Trail, which offers stunning views of the Bay Area, and Mussel Rock Park, a coastal spot popular for hiking and paragliding. Skyline College, a well-regarded community college, sits just west of the intersection, adding an academic presence. With easy access to both the Peninsula and the Pacific coast, this neighborhood blends convenience with natural beauty.
