The Christopher at Bristow Village is a newly constructed retail plaza featuring seven suites ranging from 1,300 to 2,600 square feet. The stylishly designed building boasts a modern brick and stucco façade with unique architectural accents. Unit 101 features a dramatic two-story tower at the entrance that creates a stand out design unlike anywhere in Prince William County. Unit 113 is perfect for restaurant users, with a second-floor patio and balcony ideal for outdoor dining and providing picturesque views. The Christopher is perfectly positioned at the entrance to affluent New Bristow Village, a diverse and thriving residential community of 570 single-family, detached homes and townhomes with a median home value of $480,713. With a strategic corner location along main-thoroughfare Route 28/Nokesville Road, The Christopher offers exceptional brand exposure with building signage visible to high volume pedestrian traffic and over 23,000 daily drivers. Bristow is an upscale suburban community in the Virginia countryside, about forty miles west of Washington, D.C. The Christopher at Bristow Village offers retailers, restaurateurs, and personal service-providers an exceptional destination with unparalleled access to consumers.
